

Making a donation

Donations are essential for Keech Hospice Care if we are to continue providing care for our patients and their families.

This year, we must raise over 75% of our annual running costs through voluntary donations and local fundraising. There are many ways to make a donation and any gift, whether large or small, can make a real difference.

