

Make a Will week

Starts on 22/02/2010

Ends on 26/02/2010

Location Luton, Dunstable and Bedford

If you care about what happens to your property and possessions after your death, you should make a Will and keep it updated.

Local solicitors in Luton, Dunstable and Bedford are offering to write a basic Will in return for a donation to Keech Hospice Care.

It really couldn't be simpler - just contact one of the solicitors taking part to make an initial appointment during the week of 22 - 26 February, quoting 'Keech Hospice Care'. The appointment does not have to be during that week, just the initial contact.

The solicitor will not charge you for their time for writing a basic* Will, but will invite you to make a suggested donation of £80 for a single Will or £120 for a joint Will. There is no obligation on you to make a donation in this way.

Don't put it off - it's never too soon, but it can be too late.

*Not all Wills are 'basic' and if this is the case for you, the solicitor will tell you so you can agree a revised fee before going ahead. The solicitor will write your Will following your instructions and in accordance with the Solicitor Colde 2007 published by the Law Society, acting for you exclusively and confidentially.
