

Clothing and goods

Helping us at the Keech doesn't always involve putting your hands in your pockets!

The charity's hospice shops rely on the donation of good quality second-hand items to sell, including clothing, books, CDs, crockery and more.

Everyone has belongings they no longer need so why not take a look at how you can donate to our shops and start putting those unwanted items to good use.

Related Links

- Charity shops