

QUIZ of the WEEK

Keech
hospice care
Registered Charity No. 1035089

THANK YOU FOR HOSTING A QUIZ OF THE WEEK
SUPPORTING KEECH HOSPICE CARE

1 Auctions: Another great money spinner. Try and find 5 local attractions that will give you a family pass to their venues and get your friends to bid on them.

8 A raffle: Get friends and family, the local shop, the pub you're hosting the quiz in to give you some items. You'll easily make another £100 from a raffle.

Invite a friend that works at a bank or big company. Sometimes companies have a policy that they match anything you raise on the night, therefore you double your profits.

1 Choose a great venue. Most pubs will love to give you free space if your guaranteeing people will pack out their pub.

Aim for ten teams, each team paying £50 to enter. Go for tables of 4 to 6 players. Do this and you've already made £500! A top tip is to invite about 60-80 people to get the 40 you need for a good size quiz.

Thank you so much for becoming a quiz host hero.

Please use this guide to help you easily raise £500+ for your favourite charity. It's a tried and tested format that has made £10,000's for good causes. Good luck!

Play some Fundraising games at the start and the end of the quiz. A couple of tried and tested ones include:

"Bowling for teddies". Get a nice teddy for everyone to win. Put him on the floor and get players to roll £1 and £2 coins up to the bear. The nearest to the bear wins him and you take the cash on the floor.

"Paper planes." Contestants make paper planes out of bank notes. They take it turns to throw them. The one that flies the furthest wins half the money made of planes lying on the floor, the other half to the charity.

And Collection Buckets!

Thanks for being a quiz hero and hosting a quiz for your favourite charity!

Quiz of the Week is really easy to use.
Simply read out the questions and play the audio clips.

To access the audio clips, please contact us:
letmehelp@keech.org.uk

When you see a green puzzle piece,  these are good spots to play some optional bonus games. See the end of this guide for suggestions and remember to keep a note of bonus points earned on the table to add to the teams total score at the end.

Now you're ready, lets start the quiz!

2. Along with Milton Keynes and Bedfordshire which other area does Keech Hospice Care cover?
3. What is the name of the Keech Hospice Christmas train that goes out in December raising money?
4. Who designed the hospice's new look garden and pond?
5. How much of Keech Hospice's funding comes from the community?

THE TIE BREAKER!

We only use this question in the event of a draw between the top two teams.

Q: How many points did Leicester win the Premier league with in 2016?

END OF THE SECOND HALF

Collect the quiz sheets and distribute them to the other teams to mark and then read out the answers.

Ask your audience to make sure they put the total score of both halves, PLUS the picture round score in the box marked TOTAL score. This helps to speed up the marking process.

Once all sheets are marked ask for them to be handed to you so you can add the bonus points from the optional rounds.

Announcing the winner:

1. Add up the final scores remembering to add the optional bonus round scores if you did them.
2. If the top two or bottom two teams are tied on points, use the tie breaker question to decide first and last place.
3. Announce the positions of the teams in REVERSE order. You may have some teams in joint positions.
4. Thank everyone for coming and encourage them to put up pictures on social media and encourage others to host a quiz night!

All answers are 1 point, except in the pop and rock music rounds as indicated below. Other half point answers are at the host's discretion.

THE TIE BREAKER: You do not need to read the answer out to this question as there are no points available for a correct answer. You only go to this question in the event of a draw between the top and bottom two teams. The team with the closest answer wins: THE ANSWER: 81 points

THE BONUS ROUNDS!

Make a note on the next sheet of teams scoring bonus points in the optional rounds.

PING PONG FOR POINTS!

You will need: A ping pong ball and pint glasses in the below formation.

Set up pint glasses in a triangle formation on a table. Contestants have to bounce the ball off the table and try to get it into the glasses. The back row of glasses are worth 1 point, middle row, 2 points and the glass at the front on its own 3 points.

Select a member of your team for one shot at the glasses! If you get the ball in you score points for your team!

Blindfolded darts:

You will need: A dartboard and a blindfold

Each team must select two players to step up the dart board to play darts in the dark. One to throw a dart and one to guide the thrower!

The dart thrower must be blindfolded; their team mate is there only to help them aim the dart.

A player from each team throws a single dart with the possibility to score up to 4 points for their team.

Imagine your dartboard is split into quarters- the top left section worth 1 point, top right 2 points, bottom right 3 points and bottom left 4 points. You can either guesstimate where the players dart lands, or to save arguments divide the board with some string!

The Bottle flip

You will need: A plastic bottle full of water

Select a member of your team to have 1 attempt at throwing the bottle and getting it to land standing up. If they do it, they get a bonus point!

The Biggest Break:

You will need: A pool table!

Set your pool table up with a full rack of balls. Get each team to send one member to the table to hit one shot. How ever many balls they pot off the break is the amount of bonus points you award them.

HOWEVER- if they pot the black off the break, their team loses a point!

Make sure you add their bonus points before announcing the winners.

The Phone your mum or dad round:

You will need: To research a question and someone's mum or dad!

Ask a random question and the first team member to get their mum or dad on the phone with the correct answer wins a bonus point

Dad dancing:

You will need: An up for it crowd!

Choose a suitably dad like song like "Do you think I'm sexy, or sex bomb" and get the teams to select one team member to dance to it. The winner is the dancer you think pulled off the best moves! Give that team a bonus point.
